AirAsia

Santan THE ORIGIN

Santan is milk extracted from grated coconut pulp. Rich in flavour and packed with nutrition, it's a fundamental ingredient in many cuisines in Asia. What started as a tribute to serve a myriad of meals on board that celebrate the cultures and cuisines of Asia, we've now embarked on a mission of sustainability – elevating farm-to-table social movement to dining experience on air.

We believe that a delicious Santan meal can bring people together, grow and empower our communities. We take tremendous pride in serving you quality food and beverages that are close to home by using only the freshest produce and selling locally made products across the region.

We welcome you to the finest dining experience, available only on AirAsia.

All food and beverages are subject to availability. Contact our call centre for queries regarding savings and availability of the meal of your choice.

Allergy warning - Food items may contain nuts, gluten, seafood, eggs, and dairy products.

Pictures shown are for illustration purpose only. Actual products, colours and presentation may vary. All prices are in INR. Products once sold cannot be returned. Only cash is accepted for purchases. No foreign currency is accepted on domestic flights.

This menu card is the property of AirAsia (India) Limited and is available for limited distribution for In-flight only.

This menu card is not for sale purposes and shall be used for ordering meal on board only.

Kindly do not remove this menu card from the aircraft.

A Sky High Salute to the Pioneer of Indian Aviation, J.R.D. Tata.

Jehangir Ratanji Dadabhoy Tata, a visionary who steered the Tata Group for over 50 years, was also an aviation pioneer, and is credited with opening up the Indian skies to the joys and opportunities of commercial aviation.

He translated his immense passion for flying to set up India's first airline, laying the foundation for what would become one of the most dynamic industries in the country.

Today, AirAsia India is proud and privileged to uphold J.R.D.'s legacy as a part of the Tata Group. We continue to draw inspiration from his progressive outlook, relentlessly working towards enabling everyone to fly, and exploring more of this infinitely beautiful world.

THE PIONEER'S PICKS

Did you know Mr. JRD Tata was a culinary connoisseur?
He loved experimenting with flavours, combining elements from various cuisines to create something unique and delicious!

To offer you a taste of JRD's favourites, AirAsia India and TajSATS worked with the chefs of the Taj Mahal Hotel, who provided invaluable insights into JRD's beloved dishes.

With their inputs, we have carefully recreated his favorites, which you can now enjoy hot and fresh on-board.

A MANGO THAT TOSSED AND TURNED

A green mango tucked away
Under a thick blanket of hay
Had turned a bright yellow on top
When I woke it up the next day

Later again when I went to peep
I suddenly felt my heart leap
How was it green on top again?
The mango was turning in its sleep!

We also toss our mangoes in hay till they turn into a ripe yellow to make a delicious and thick Aamras.

Now Everyone Can Fly

 AirAsia

₹ 1,200

Flying High is the memoir of an exceptional business leader and an inspiring story that demonstrates you can achieve anything if you dare to dream. As a boy, Tony Fernandes wanted to be a pilot, a racing driver or a footballer. By 2011 he'd gone one better: building his own airline, buying a Formula One team and becoming Chairman of Queens Park Rangers. Born and raised in Malaysia, Fernandes was sent to boarding school in England aged twelve, where he excelled in sport and was taught the importance of camaraderie. On leaving school, Fernandes travelled around America and Australia, learning valuable lessons about the power of positivity and inclusivity that would go on to shape his open approach to business.
